What are "CLONE" questions?

Clone questions are for the moment that you are ever cloned and your spouse can't tell you a part from said clone. This is our full proof system of a series of questions that only you will know the answer to so your spouse will be able to make the right choice.

In all seriousness, we started asking simple questions when we were dating and after we got married, we kept asking questions that got funnier, deeper, sexier, and it has provided a place for both of us to have fun and feel comfortable with each other.

Each page gets deeper as you go and our rule during our game is that you are safe to answer as truthfully as you can. You can't hold any answers over your spouse or make fun of them during vulnerable moments. You Can always talk about the hard answers because that is the point... to talk about things you might not of before. You can choose to skip questions but just know that this is meant to push down the walls you have built in your marriage.

You don't have to answer every question in one night. Take your time, choose a page, and have fun!

Disclaimer: Just because we want does not obligate our spouse. We are not responsible for any uncomfortable with. This game provides a safe place for open communication in your marriage.
